

SALUTE TO AGRICULTURE 2009

- Facing The Challenges
- Reaping The Rewards

The landscape of farming has changed so much and continues to change. But the fact remains that our community is still tied to the business of farming.

What affects agriculture - affects all of us.

Our September 2nd, 2009 issue will feature stories focused on local issues.

Editorial staff have already started doing stories featuring long time farm families, the many changes in farming practices, the changing economy of farming, the affects of urban sprawl, diversification, marketing changes, the opportunities of bio-diesel, the need for the oil sector to work with the agriculture sector and the importance of farming to our local economy.
